

privacy and cookies policy.

This privacy policy describes how 89design.uk protects and makes use of the information you give the company when you use this website. If you are asked to provide information when using this website, it will only be used in the ways described in this privacy policy. This policy is updated from time to time.

Introduction.

89design.uk collects and uses certain information about individuals in order to provide design services and to enable certain functions on this website.

We also gather information to better understand how visitors use this website and to present timely, relevant information to them.

Data this website collects.

We may collect the following information:

- Name and job title
- Contact information (including e-mail address)
- Demographic information such as postcode, preferences and interests
- Website usage data
- Other information relevant to client enquiries
- Other information pertaining to special offers and surveys

How we use this data.

Collecting this data helps us understand what you are looking for from the company, enabling us to deliver improved products and services.

Specifically, we may use data:

- For our own internal records
- To improve the products and services we provide
- To contact you in response to a specific enquiry
- To customise the website for you
- To send you promotional e-mails about products, services, offers and other things we think might be relevant to you
- To send you promotional mailings or to call you about products, services, offers and other things we think might be relevant to you
- To contact you via e-mail, telephone or mail for market research reasons

Cookies and how we use them.

What is a cookie?

A cookie is a small file placed on your computer's hard drive. It enables our website to identify your computer as you view different pages on our website.

Cookies allow websites and applications to store your preferences in order to present content, options or functions that are specific to you. They also enable us to see information like how many people use the website and what pages they tend to visit.

How we use cookies

We may use cookies to:

- Analyse our web traffic using an analytics package. Aggregated usage data helps us improve the website structure, design, content and functions.
- Test content on our website. For example, 50% of our users might see one piece of content, the other 50% a different piece of content.
- Store information about your preferences. The website can then present you with information you will find more relevant and interesting.
- To recognise when you return to our website. We may show your relevant content, or provide functionality you used previously.

Cookies do not provide us with access to your computer or any information about you, other than that which you choose to share with us.

Cookie settings

You can use your web browser's cookie settings to determine how our website uses cookies. If you do not want our website to store cookies on your computer or device, you should set your web browser to refuse cookies.

However, please note that doing this may affect how our website functions. Some pages and services may become unavailable to you.

Unless you have changed your browser to refuse cookies, our website will issue cookies when you visit it.

To learn more about cookies and how they are used, visit All About Cookies.

Controlling information about you.

When you fill in a form or provide your details on our website, you will see a tick box allowing you to opt-in to receive marketing communications from us by e-mail, telephone, text message or post.

If you have agreed that we can use your information for marketing purposes, you can change your mind easily by e-mailing info@89design.uk requesting that we no longer contact you for marketing purposes.

We will never lease, distribute or sell your personal information to third parties unless we have your express permission or the law requires us to.

All personal data that we may use will be collected, processed and held in accordance with the provisions of EU Regulation 2016/679 General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and your rights under the GDPR.

Security.

We will always hold your information securely.

To prevent unauthorised disclosure or access to your information, we have implemented strong physical and electronic security safeguards.

We also follow stringent procedures to ensure we work with all personal data in line with the Data Protection Act 1998.

External website links.

Our website may contain links to other websites. Please note that we have no control of websites outside the 89design.uk domain. If you provide information to a website to which we link, we are not responsible for its protection and privacy.
